

Manager of New Client Services

Premier plaintiff's law firm seeks Manager of New Client Services in Lexington, Kentucky. This position will lead our New Client Services team members in overseeing and directing new case acquisition. Candidate needs to have demonstrated the ability to collaborate with internal teams to deliver high-quality services and solutions; strong ability to analyze data and provide feedback with a minimum of 3-5 years' experience in leadership support. Position requires excellent organizational, written and verbal communication skills, as well as an understanding and desire to lead and have a team philosophy and approach. Competitive pay and benefits with bonus potential available. College degree preferred. Send resume to: brittney@mvmllaw.com